Stories

1888: Major Israel

Israel was named after Major Israel Uncapher. Neighbors thought it was cute to call the infant Major when he was born, so he went through life with that name. In 1888 he helped start a Deposit Bank in Dubois, Pa., and was manager for 50 years. He was a friend of Buffalo Bill Cody and in June 1908 was installed by Chief Irontail as a Chief of the Sioux Tribe. His Indian name was Tchanta Tanks. His home in Dubois was known as "The Wigwam". He was interested in genealogy and published three booklets on McCreights in the U.S.

1939: My Long Lost Cousin as told by Florence Jane Gofton

It was 1939 and I was in the 4th grade. I had to walk a mile to school because in the old days we didn't have buses. We had to take our lunch and after we ate, we could go out on the playground. While I was out there I saw a girl sitting under a tree. I found out that she had stepped on a needle and it broke off in her foot.

We exchanged names and I told her that my last name was 'McCreight'. Her name was Leone Phillips. She said that was her aunt's name. The aunt (Mary McCreight) lived with them. Leone's mother was Mary's sister. Leone and I were in different 4th grade rooms, but we became very good friends and I stood up in her wedding and kept in touch until she passed away with cancer.

We both went home and told our parents and my folks invited them to dinner. Years before my Grandfather had a falling out with his brothers over a bank deal and consequently my Dad never met his aunts, uncles or cousins. These two ladies were my Dad's first cousins and they all went to DuBois, PA to meet Major McCreight and some of the family. Needless to say Dad did spend more time with Major's family over the years.

1989: Trip to the White House as told by Florence Jane Gofton

Shawn and I met in Virginia for the retirement of my cousin Jerry Reynolds from the Pentagon. Jerry got us into the press briefing room, and the Situation Room at the White House.
